

An Encore Documentary Presentation at PERB

In recognition of Black History Month, PERB will feature the documentary video: “The 1968 Memphis Sanitation Strike: It’s Place in Labor History.” This documentary debuted in Los Angeles earlier this month at the annual meeting of the College of Labor and Employment Lawyers. In addition to telling the story of the strike and the assassination of Martin Luther King, the video focuses on the importance of public sector labor relations agencies such as PERB in peacefully resolving questions of union recognition.

via WebEx

Tuesday, February 13, 2024
10:00 a.m. – Noon

Please register by sending an email to gertie.elam@dc.gov, including your name, agency, and union affiliation (if applicable).

John E. Higgins, Jr., the instructor, is a former Board Member and Acting General Counsel of the National Labor Relations Board. As a Distinguished Lecturer, he currently teaches “Labor Relations in the Public Sector” and “NLRB Practice and Procedure” at the Catholic University School of Law. His publications include The Developing Labor Law (Editor-in-Chief, 4th, 5th, 6th and 7th editions), Outline of Law and Procedure in Representation Cases, and How to Take a Case Before the NLRB (supplement to the 8th edition).